Wasatch Stake Seminary Building

on a new building. In the meantime, the home itself was used for seminary class instruction.

Materials for the new seminary building came from several sources. Much usable material was obtained from the Clegg home when it was torn down, and about that same time the Heber Tithing and Grocery building was torn down and part of this material was used in the seminary. Later in the year the Heber Central School burned, but some usable materials were salvaged and purchased for use in the seminary building construction.

When completed the seminary building had cost some $25,000, including furnishings and equipment. Half the cost was borne from general Church funds, and the nine wards of the stake contributed the other half.

This method of financing Church buildings—part of the expense being borne by the Church general funds and the balance by the local wards or stake—was instituted during the presidency of Heber J. Grant. Prior to that time local areas had to finance the entire cost of their building projects. Many of the early Church buildings in Wasatch Stake, including the Stake Tabernacle, were built and dedicated without any general Church participation.

Elder Jacobsen, the first seminary principal, served in Heber until 1920 when he was transferred to the Vernal seminary. Those who followed him at the seminary have included: Ralph E. Nilsson, 1920-1923; David A. Broadbent, 1923-1937; Heber M. Rasband, 1925-1927; Royden C. Braithwaite, 1937-1941; Wendell M. Rigby, 1937-1942; Harold H.

The old Wallsburg Ward Chapel and school, which was built during the term of Bishop William E. Nuttall, who was bishop from 1877 to 1886. At the time the chapel was constructed a separate building was erected for young men and still another Relief Society building for the women.

ceeded by Francis Kerby. Counselors to Bishop Kerby were John C. Parcell and Dixon H. Greer, with Joseph K. Parcell, clerk.

Other bishoprics have been as follows:

Bishop George Peter Garff, May 11, 1903 to Jan. 28, 1912. His counselors were William A. Nuttall, William J. Boren and John C. Whiting. Clerks were John Lewis Parcell and John M. Calderwood.

Bishop William P. Fullmer, Jan. 28, 1912 to March 26, 1916. Counselors were Franklin A. Fraughton, John Frank Mecham and Clerks Landy M. Foster and John C. Greer.

Bishop George A. Gardner, March 26, 1916 to July 1, 1934. Counselors included Ernest Jacobsen, George L. Batty and Alfred Ford Jr. Lewis C. Parcell was clerk during the entire period of Bishop Gardner's service.

VERNON C. NEILSON by Vernon C. Neilson
(Ninth Bishop: 1955-1957) of Goshen

My parents were humble people born of pioneer stock. My father, James Eugene Neilson, was raised in Levan, Utah. My mother, Lillian Russell Nielson, was born in Nephi, Utah. Father worked as a motor man on the Electric Street cars in Salt Lake City.

I was born January 7, 1918, at Salt Lake City, the fourth son and fourth child. When I was a year and a half old my parents moved to Centerfield to work in the sugar factory. In 1920, we moved to a farm near Nephi where I saw my first airplane when one was forced down in the field near our home.

While still under school age, I moved with my parents to Levan. Father bought a two-room house to which he added two more rooms. Here I began school. On August 1, 1926, I was baptized with eight other children in an irrigation ditch that had been dammed for a pond.

Our family later moved to Provo where I finished elementary, junior high and high school. I competed in track events in Dixon High School and took second place. At Provo High, I was a member of a track team for three years when our team took first place at the state track meet.

My parents were faithful L.D.S. They took us children to church and taught us the Gospel. While a Deacon, I received my patriarchal blessing with great promises and which always was a source of inspiration to me. My parents kept my two older brothers on missions by doing the custodial work in the Church. I filled a mission to the Central States from 1940-1942.

I was inducted in the army July 5, 1943, and served in the Asiatic-Pacific theatre in New Zealand, the French Island of New Caledonia. We went on to the Island of Luzon in the Philippine Islands. I was sent to Japan and finally arrived home January 11, 1946.

I had been set apart as an L.D.S. group leader before leaving the States, and so I conducted meetings during my oversea's duty, except while in combat. We had a baptism and some advances in the priesthood during that time.

At 28, I married Olive Parker in the Salt Lake Temple on April 2, 1947, and began school at B.Y.U., graduating in 1950 in Education. My first position was teaching elementary school in Fort Thomas, Arizona as principal and teacher of sixth grade. We stayed there two years.

We returned to Utah where I took the position of Principal of the Goshen School in 1952. Here our second child was born.

It was during this time I was called to be Bishop of Goshen Ward. On October 9, 1955, I was ordained by Elder Hugh B. Brown. Henry Roberts and Curtis Sorenson were sustained as my counselors with John Morris Thomas and Russell Nelson as ward clerks.

New challenges beckoned. In 1957, we left Goshen and moved to Heber, Utah, where I served as Principal of the Seminary. Then in the spring of 1958, we moved to Provo and then to Taylorsville where we purchased our first home. I enrolled at the University of Utah in the Graduate School of Social Work and graduated with a Masters Degree in Social Work in June 1960. I accepted employment in child welfare with the Salt Lake County Department of Public Welfare. In 1961, I was offered a position in the Social Work Department of the Salt Lake County General Hospital. After six months, I was made assistant director of Social Work. The department was involved in field work training agency for the University of Utah Graduate School of Social Work, and I became an instructor for the school.

The new University of Utah Medical Center was completed and the social staff along with patients from the county General Hospital were moved to the new hospital July 1965, where I am at the present time (1979).

lodge at Tooele, Utah, the Royal Arch Chapter and Knights Templar Commandery at Price and the Consistory bodies. In a business way he has invested in mining enterprises, has some mining interests in Utah and is interested in developments in Wyoming. Doctor Fahring was one of the organizers of the Helper Ball Club.

He married, July 24, 1913, Miss Selma Lasson, of Fairview, Utah. They have two children, Bill, born in 1914, and Sue, born in 1920.

In 1920 he became principal of the Latter Day Saints Seminary at Heber, and his service in this capacity continued three years. Councilmen who were elected with him in the 1928 election included Sumner Hatch, Ralph F. Nilsson, Frederick Crook and Daniel McMillan. Velma Crook Buys was recorder and Elmer Strong continued as treasurer.
